

This is paid, private programming. I should be able to hear local weather and traffic as a part of my paid service. We still live in the United States of America, right? Freedom of speech is a sacred part of being an American. Please expend your time and energy on something more worthwhile like education, the environment, rebuilding the economy. Let XM Radio be!